ART IS EVERYWHERE IN DOWNTOWN DAYTON!

Dayton is home to an incredible number of arts and cultural groups. On Friday, August 2, the Downtown Dayton Partnership, along with hundreds of local artists and arts organizations, is celebrating the arts in a big way.

PAINT.

The Art in the City Juried Art Show, curated by The Contemporary Dayton, returns! August 2-16, find mini pop-up gallery exhibits placed in downtown businesses. Discover a new artist – and perhaps a new favorite hangout!

On August 2, check out participatory art activities and art-making stations throughout downtown and enjoy live demos, performances, and more!

NEW this year! Participate in the Community Art Project with The Mosaic Institute of Greater Dayton. Come to Courthouse Square and help create a huge mosaic gem!

PERFORM.

Dayton is home to world-class performing arts organizations. During the August 2 Art in the City event, you'll find string quartets, theater performances, exciting arias, funky beats, whimsical puppets, and more!

Enjoy live performances at the Schuster Center, PNC Arts Annex, and Levitt Pavilion Dayton, plus places like K12 Gallery & TEJAS, Courthouse Square, and the Oregon District. You will also find pop-up performances in downtown businesses and roving downtown streets.

PARTY.

A proper celebration must include downtown's famous patios! From 6 to 8 p.m. you'll encounter visual and performing arts activities in or near many of your favorite patios and outdoor spots. Kick back with dinner and drinks, and soak in the arts and culture from your seat.

Since it's First Friday, you'll find many more activities, like dining specials, tours, sales, music, and other attractions at downtown businesses. Learn more at DowntownDayton.org.
